TWO LOWELL MEN ELECTED OFFICERS OF U. LOWELL FACULTY

LOWELL, MASS. - Local residents Bernard Shapiro and Joseph W. Waterman have been elected to leadership positions on the University of Lowell faculty for the recently opened 1978-79 academic year.

Professor Shapiro, a graduate of the University and Massachusetts Institute of Technology, is Chairman and has been a member of the mathematics department since 1962. A member of the University Council, he is Chairman of the campus Athletic Committee. Additionally, he is coordinator of math for the College of Management Science, and advisor to the Sophomore Class and Student Alpine Club.

Active in civic groups, Shapiro is a trustee of the Lowell Hebrew Community Center, Inc. and a member of Temple Beth-El. He resides at 48 Tyler Park.

Joseph W. Waterman of the psychology department is serving as Secretary-Treasurer for the faculty. He holds degrees from Boston University, and the Universities of Connecticut and Vermont, and has been a faculty member for 16 years. Coordinator of General Psychology at Lowell, he conducts a Study Skills workshop for the Counseling Center, and serves as chairman of the Promotions Committee for the Psychology Department. Waterman is advisor to Delta Kappa Phi Fraternity, and the campus student newspaper.

Professor Waterman is former president of the Brotherhood of Temple Beth-El, and resides at 83 Fairfield Street.
